this

white station

there are two ways
to tell a story:
recite the way things
should have been, or relate them as they really were. this book's only purpose
is to tell it like it is. this is white
station, nineteen hundred sixty-nine.

station
is haven to . . .

the image of the high school as one harmonious body united in common purpose must necessarily fade. the high school is not an end in itself; it is an environment for developing the individual potential. unless it has enriched the uniqueness of each mind entrusted to it, it has failed in purpose. conformity is an answer that will not be tolerated.

... a world
of different faces
different ideas
different purposes

. . . individuality expressing itself
in innumerable ways

although the hectic demands of life
sometimes seem insurmountable,
every now and then each person alive manages to carve a niche
in life and find time to be himself. the more time
a person takes to do this,
the more clearly will his character and individuality develop.

white station attempts to prepare its students
for the world.

the world is never simple, never
dull, sometimes bleak,
always awesome.

we want to be ready.

dedication
to specific goals,
trivial
or vital

does a white station
student study to pass tomorrow's test or does a white station student learn for personal edification? does he come to have fun or does he come to learn to grow? does his life happen to him or does he make his life
happen?
is he an individual?

white station is nothing more than the people it holds. no
trite praises nor embittered
lampoons can ever change its character without first changing
its people.

. . . and above
all, exuberance
for life and all
it has to offer

to mrs. falsone/ in dedication

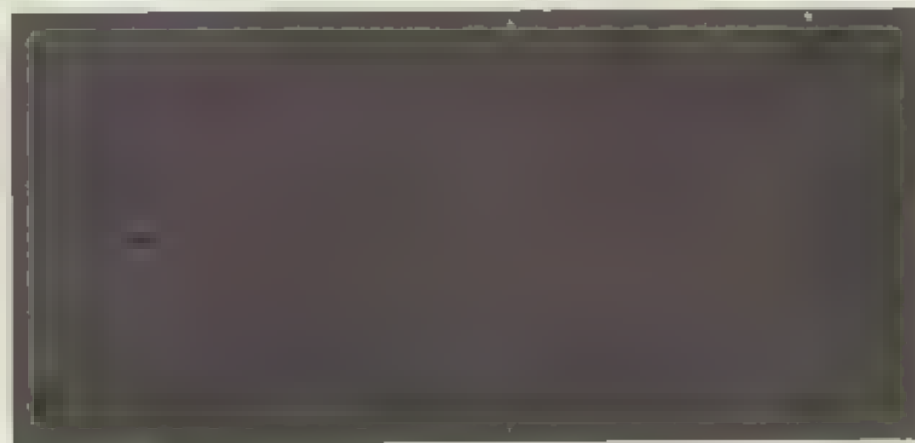

On any weekday from 7:30 A. M. to 5:00 P. M. a most unique figure may be seen haunting the realm of White Station's library—Mrs. Anne Marie Falsone, chief librarian. This hyper-energetic brunette devotes her time to such exhausting duties as finding the missing December 1962 Look or chastising a delinquent book-borrower or attempting (futilely) to keep the noise level of the library down to 110 decibels. She is an indisputable institution in the school, as widely familiar as the Bulletin or the Stump; we are deeply grateful to her for simply being there.

Miss White Station Cindy McQuiston

Combining beauty with wit and charm, Cindy McQuiston fits every requirement for the perfect Miss White Station. Always eager to serve her school and fellow students, Cindy has been active in school activities for many years. Having participated as a cheerleader for four years, Cindy leads the squad this year as captain. No less enthusiastically, she has taken an active role in the student government as a Student Council Representative, and as the Girls' Vice President this year. Working on the staffs of the Shield and Scribbler, taking part on the Girls' Track Team, and being a member of the National Honor Society have also had their share in rounding out Cindy and making her the perfect choice for the high honor of being named Miss White Station.

Mr. White Station Mike Rowan

The quality of leadership is perhaps the most desirable one any man may have, and it certainly shows itself in the character make-up of Mr. White Station, Mike Rowan. Always a leader in anything he attempts, Mike has had the admiration of all his fellow students ever since he first set out along the road that has since led to a successful high school life. An outstanding member of the football team, Mike has not been content to become a merely good player, but has excelled to the extent that he now has been honored in being named ALL-AAAA, and ALL-MEMPHIS. Eager to be of service to all, Mike has earned a place for himself in the affections and minds of his friends and teachers, and this has won for him the honor of Mr. White Station.

*Best All-Round
Melissa Mays
Gordon Mathes*

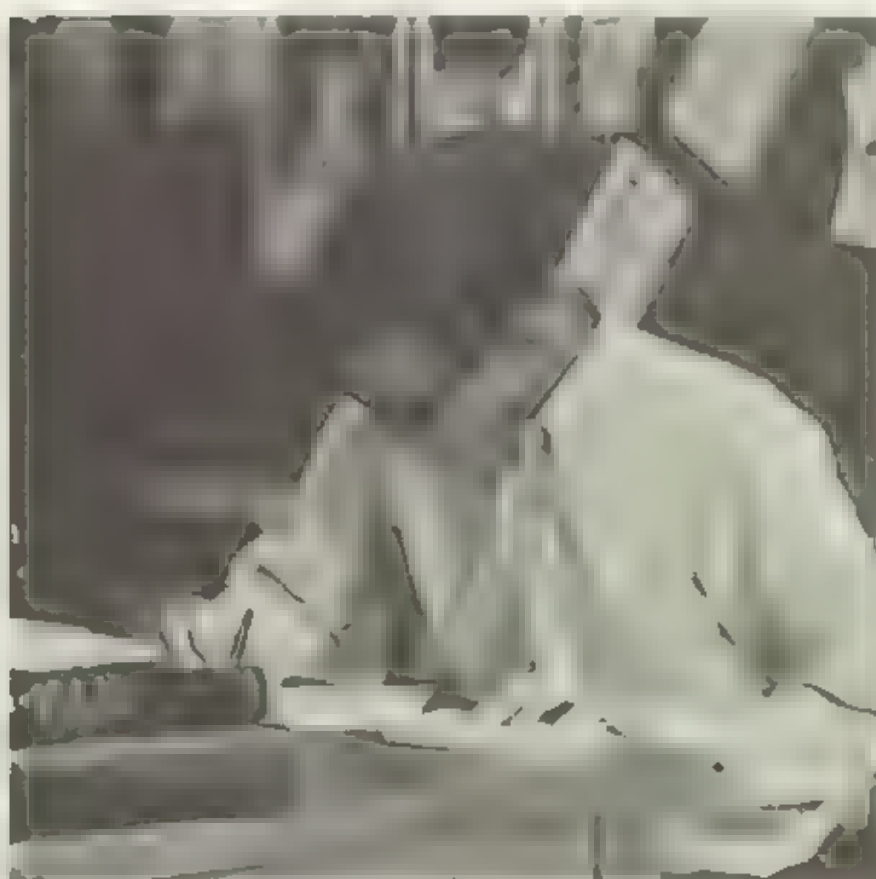

Enjoying the benefits of their many-faceted lives, Melissa Mays and Gordon Mathes have all the qualifications required for the honor of being known as Best All Round. Both active in various phases of school life, their activities vary from Honor Society to cheerleading. Melissa has been a cheerleader for three years, and has also served on the Student Council. A member of the National Honor Society, she finishes out a well-rounded life by working on the staff of the Scroll. Also active, Gordon Mathes' activities range from Key Club, to Honor Society, to serving as president of Mu Alpha Theta. An excellent student and an avid sports fan, Gordon, too, leads a busy and productive life. Together, both Melissa and Gordon admirably fill the positions they have been awarded—that of Best All-Round

Most Likely to Succeed Dana Buchman Tom Patterson

Success, be it in business or in a high school career, is a difficult end to achieve. Never coming easily, it takes people with great determination to capture it and leash its power. Two such people are Dana Buchman and Tom Patterson. Dana, as editor of the Scroll, has always been one to view any obstacle with an air of unconcern. A member of the Honor Society and Mu Alpha Theta, she makes her intelligence work for her. Also a National Merit Semi-Finalist, she presents a perfect picture of success and self-assurance to all who know her. Equally outstanding is Tom Patterson, president of the Honor Society. Working hard to maintain his excellent grades, Tom nevertheless finds time to manage the Sports section of the annual and to participate in Key Club. Both hard workers, Dana and Tom deserve fully the honor that has been bestowed on them with the title of Most Likely to Succeed.

Most School-Spirited
Peggy Ryder
Jimmy Slater

School-spirit shows itself in many ways—activity in athletics, cheerleading, of work with the Pep Club. Both Peg Ryder and Jim Slater qualify highly to be known as the Most School-Spirited, for both work for the Pep Club at White Station. Ever present at sign paintings and pep rallies, Peg and school-spirit have become synonymous. Jim leads the Pep Club as president, and as an enthusiastic supporter of the White Station Spartans. His figure may always be seen leading a cheer or roaming the halls in early morning, supervising the hanging of signs and the sale of pep ribbons. All in all, two workers more involved with the spirit of enthusiastic Spartans cannot be found and it is fitting that the title of Most School-Spirited should fall to these two—Peg Ryder and Jim Slater

Most Intelligent
Gail Beyer
Joe Rouse

Though sounding a bit stilted in certain connotations, the title of Most Intelligent is nevertheless one that is most desirable. Being captured this year by Gail Beyer and Joe Rouse, the title has fallen to two very deserving and outstanding students. As editor of the Shield, Gail still finds time to maintain a grade-point average that has earned her a class standing of No. 1, and membership into Honor Society, Quill and Scroll, and Mu Alpha Theta. Also outgoing, Joe channels his energy into speech and debate. Serving as president of the National Forensics League, Joe is also a member of the Honor Society and Mu Alpha Theta. Both hardworking in their various phases of school activity, they have been rewarded for their excellence in scholarship with the recognition they truly deserve.

Most Talented
Betty Ann Hunt
Alan Brooks

Talent is an inborn gift, but the ability and drive to develop this talent is determined by the character of he who possesses the gift. To be known as Most Talented, therefore, is a great honor, more so than one thinks, and the honor is received this year by Betty Ann Hunt and Alan Brooks. Making the most of her remarkable talent, Betty Ann is a member of the chorus and she received high honors for her abilities in the Jr. Miss Pageant. Alan, on the other hand, aims his talent toward the piano, where he excels. Playing for the many assemblies and programs at school, Alan has earned a reputation for excellence in music. Both Betty Ann and Alan exemplify the remarkable product that devotion and hard work may bring when they are combined with the talent that these two possess.

Most Athletic Ken Roach
Most Vivacious
Maureen Cobb

Alive with the buoyance and high spirit of total involvement, Maureen Cobb has proven herself so outgoing that no one else could ever fill her shoes as Most Vivacious. Active as a cheerleader, Maureen never fails to make others feel that same enthusiasm she has for any and all activities. Forever participating in some facet of school activity, Maureen has come to be an integral part of the outgoing character that colors the portrait of a high school senior.

Ken Roach, on the other hand, has played his way into a position on the football team that demands the respect of everyone. Putting his entirety into the game, he has come to be one of the mightiest players White Station has ever known, and a fine person that deserves the tag of admiration—Most Athletic.

Class spirit is one aspect of high school that is not passed by the school board or ordered by the principal. Instead, it develops through students themselves. It comes from working together and then taking pride in the product. The Outstanding Seniors, as chosen by the faculty, represent many phases of such work and pride. Class spirit is obvious in athletics, as it is encouraged by the work of both the players and the cheerleaders. Students take increasing pride in their classes as they edit award-winning publications. The curtain calls at a play or the announcement of another award for excellence brings pride to everyone and not just those directly involved. Thus the Outstanding Seniors are but a part of the vast whole that involves everyone who contributes to the production of a worthwhile end to a high school activity.

STUDENT COUNCIL

One Spring day out of every year innocent students walk through the doors of White Station, little knowing what has hit them. He runs into or is run into by avid supporters of the Student Council Candidates. Posters, handouts, and slogans are thrust into the hands of unaware students. Last year the two themes used by the candidates were "Gray on Parade" and "Make the Scene with Green."

The Student Council has served its purpose mainly by the coordination of school-wide activities. This year the council sold pennants to raise money for the Mike Driver Fund; participated in city-wide charity drives; posted items of interest on the bulletin boards; and smoothly conducted the campaigns and elections of officers for next year. The aim of the Student Council is to aid student, teachers, school, and community with services befitting the tradition of our school.

KEY CLUB

This year's Key Club has shown to be truly outstanding in activities at school and in the community. In every possible way the members have fulfilled their motto "We Build." Projects included painting numbers in the school parking lot, hosting home basketball games, taking orphans to the park, collecting canned goods for the needy, and holding a Key Club-Faculty basketball game. In October our Key Clubbers received much recognition from the community because of a project which had them working in poverty areas of the city. The publication of the Buzz Book highlights the activities of the club each year. Through these numerous activities, the Key Club has completed its most successful year. After elections and District Convention the Key Club plans to soar to even greater heights.

The '69 SHIELD provides a literary and pictorial record of life at White Station during the past school year. In the spring of 1968 the initial stages of the yearbook began with workshops and meetings of the new editors and staff. Laboring through the tasks of selling ads, taking pictures, and making lay outs, the SHIELD staff diligently worked during the 68-69 school year to make this annual a success. The advice of our advisor, Mrs. Sandra Parker, aided immensely in coordinating this publication. We, the staff, sincerely hope we have captured the spirit of White Station and that this issue of the SHIELD will be a happy reminder of the events and people of 1968-1969.

It also serves as direct communication between Student Government or Faculty and the student body. The SCROLL is a self-supporting publication maintained by ad and paper sales. The staff consists of six editors, a business manager, and numerous reporters. The SCROLL staff participates in a training course and workshops, where each person is taught the fundamental ideas of journalism. SCRIBBLER

The White Station SCRIBBLER, the first literary magazine of its kind published by the students of a Memphis public school, was organized in 1959 to further creativity in writing and art, and has since won the highest rating from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. The magazine consists of poems, short stories, and essays written by creative students in grades ten through twelve. The staff includes an editor, an art editor, a business manager, a twelve member editorial board, which selects the contributions to be used, and an all-important business staff. Under the guidance of Mr. Adrian McClaren, the entire staff worked diligently in putting out the finest SCRIBBLER possible.

HONOR SOCIETY

The new inductee trembled with excitement and disbelief as he approached the stage, soon to become a member of the National Honor Society. The White Station chapter of the Honor Society has been functioning for eleven years, setting its goal higher every year. The purpose of this organization is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render services, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in students at White Station. Students possessing admirable qualities of leadership, scholarship, character, and service with an average of 3.2 or better may be tapped for induction in the spring and fall ceremonies. Though not a service organization, the Honor Society provided honor roll ribbons each six weeks and elected the student of the month. Then with the annual dinner given in the spring the Honor Society year came to a close.

QUILL and SCROLL

Members of the SHIELD, SCROLL and SCRIBBLER work toward two main goals through the production of their literary works—service to their school and expression of them selves. Those juniors and seniors who have proven excep- tional in some phase of school publications and journalism and are in the upper third of their class are rewarded with membership in the Cal Alley chapter of the QUILL and SCROLL. Our chapter instills the ideal of scholar- ship, advances the standards of journalism, and promotes exact thinking and forceful writing in living up to the purpose of the QUILL and SCROLL. White Station's chap- ter of the International Honor Society for High School Jour- nalists was established in 1956 and named after the editorial cartoonist, Cal Alley. The QUILL and SCROLL sponsors induction assemblies, held twice yearly, and the Publications Banquet in the spring

It works on a merit system, and students may receive points for debating, interpretation, oratory, extemporaneous speaking, and a wide variety of other speaking forms. Students with 25 points receive membership, 75 points equals a degree of honor, 150 results in excellence, and those with 250 points achieve distinction, the highest honor. The club, organized only two years ago, received five sweepstakes trophies, with the year only half over. The main responsibility for NFL members is preparing for tournament work, and members consider their achievement into this organization truly an honor.

TRI-M

"Music is a triumph!" It is with this attitude that musically talented students at White Station strive for greater and finer achievements in music. For these students, the Tri-M, or Modern Music Majors, signifies excellence in music. New inductees are selected strictly on a merit basis. The major requirements include musicianship, scholarship, leadership, character, attitude, and service. Members of this national music honor society must maintain a "B" average in a music course and a "C" academic average. One of the principal goals of Tri-M is to inspire more talented young people to develop their talents to the peak of their capabilities.

THESPIANS

"Act well your part. There all the honor lies" is the motto of the National Thespian Society. It is an honorary organization spotlighting those sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have shown meritorious services in the field of dramatic arts. Combining such talents as acting, back stage work, business managing, and directing, the society has been the backbone for our school's many productions. This year, under the guidance of Mr. Eugene Cram, the Thespians managed a workshop to promote interest in dramatics for all students here at school. In the spring an annual banquet is held and awards for Best Actor and Actress, Best Thespian, and Honor Thespian are given, in addition to the induction of next year's officers.

BAND

Mr. Vergos proudly directs our successful BAND

"And the band played on." Truly, the White Station High School BAND has lived up to this phrase in many ways. With the hard work and cooperation of each person, the band's year was completely successful. They displayed their talent by playing for pep meetings, football games, the school musical, and concerts. Under the direction of Mr. Nick Vergos, our band has become one of the finest instrumental organizations in West Tennessee, receiving superior and excellent ratings in all of the contests they entered. White Station's band has set the supreme example for musicianship in the instrumental field, and we are all proud of their hard work and determination.

PEP CLUB

The green hands and green clothes seen in the halls of school are not those of little green Martians. On the contrary, they are the hands and clothes of the diligent members of White Station's PEP CLUB. Under the leadership of Jimmy Slater, these industrious Spartans have slaved over paint cans weekly. Aside from decorating the halls at school, the Pep Clubbers supplied skits at pep meetings and adorned the goalposts for football games. This year marked the first year that the PEP CLUB has made an all-out effort to promote school spirit during the basketball season. Our hats off to this essential group of hard-working Spartans who have done a great service for White Station

DARK OF THE MOON

On November 17 and 18, 1968, the White Station Speech Department, under the direction of Mr. Eugene Crain, pulled off an excellent presentation of "Dark of the Moon." The play was based on the seventeenth century "Ballad of Barbr'y Allen." It concerned the ill-fated love of Barbara Allen, a mountain girl, and the witch-boy John. The outstanding cast was headed by Cheryl Douglas as Barbara, Gary Harrison as John, and Billy Baker as Preacher Haggler. The play was another wonderful credit to White Station with these Spartans' hard work and fine talent.

MURDER IN THE CATHEDRAL

On December 12 and 13, White Station audiences were carried back to 12th century by the outstanding performance of Spartans in T S Eliot's "Murder In the Cathedral". Under the direction of Mr Mark Pilkington, Bill Baker enthralled the onlookers with his portrayal of Thomas Becket. Janet Morrison, Barry Cagan, Denis Eavenson, and Dana Buchman, the four tempters Becket had to overcome, were equally successful in their roles. The play was unique in that modern appropos music was provided in the interludes by Joni Johnston and Peri Posner. This cast once again maintained White Station's reputation for excellent productions.

GUYS ON

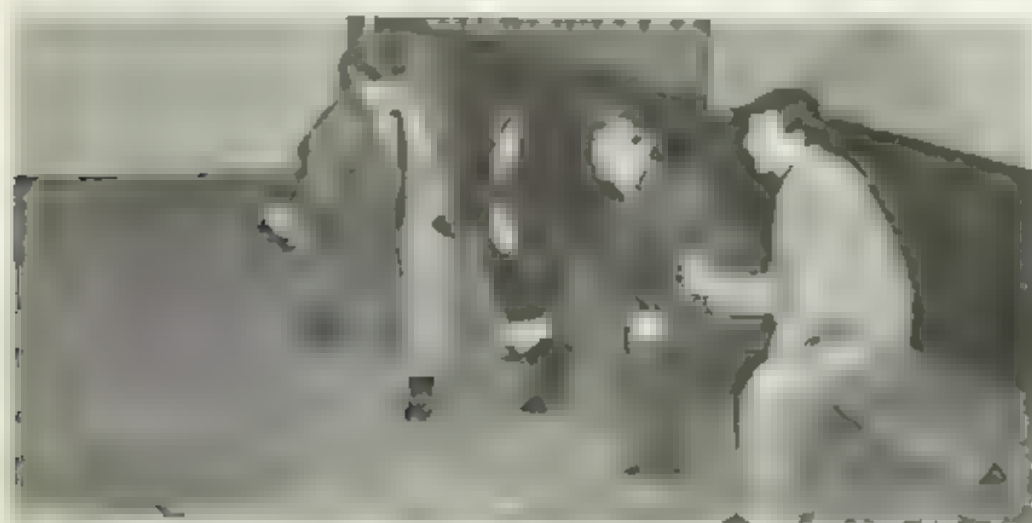

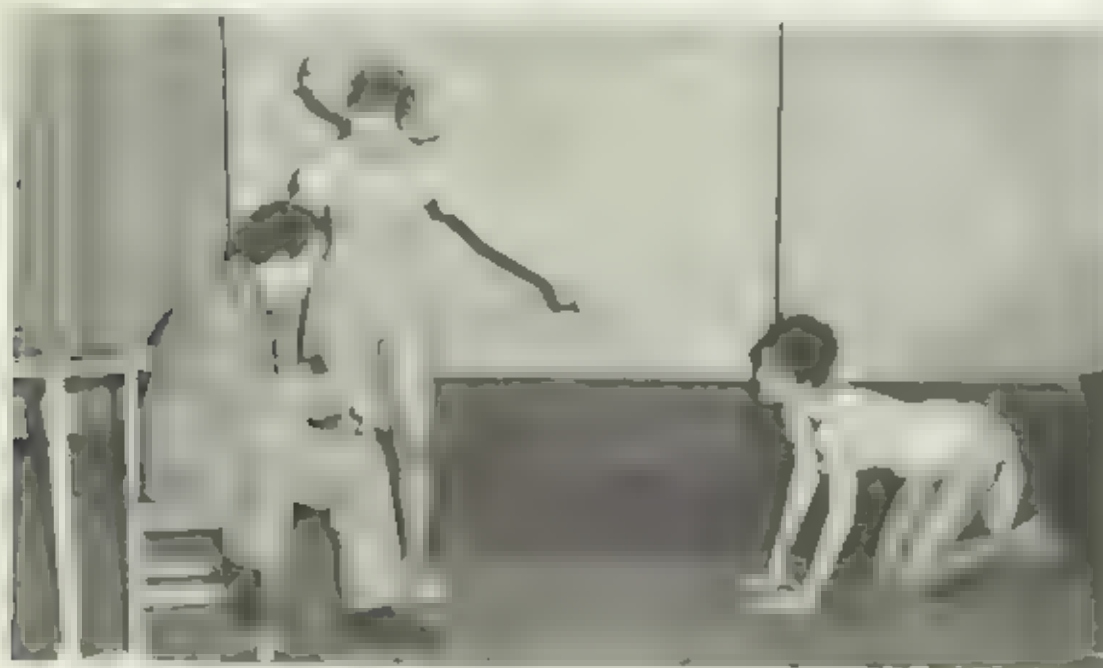

DOLLS

"Luck be a lady" was not only one of the songs in GUYS AND DOLLS but it was also the theme of the many actors, actresses, and stage crews who worked together in producing it. However, following the first production it was obvious the only luck needed was that of Sky Masterson, one of the leading characters, as he tried to win a bet. The play was a success—everything was great!

GUYS AND DOLLS, the smash Broadway hit with music and lyrics by Frank Loesser, is a musical fable of Broadway based on a story by Damon Runyan. It relates a clever fable of Broadway characters who appear worse on the surface than they really are.

Mr. Eugene Crain, who is noted throughout the city for his outstanding productions of the highest quality, did a superb job of directing and staging, preparing each person for the big opening night. The beautifully trained voices of the chorus and principals was due to the vocal direction of Miss Mary Hudson. Mr. Nick Vergos, working with the White Station and, added much to the production with their fine orchestration. Helping greatly at the rehearsals was accompanist Alan Brooks.

Sara Brown, the Mission Doll was played by Betty Ann Hunt. Her quiet charm and surprising drunkenness were an enjoyable addition to the story. Larry Wilkinson did an outstanding job as Sky Masterson, the big-time gambler who won a $1,000 bet by taking Sara to Havana for dinner. Nathan Detroit and Miss Adelaide, who had been engaged for 14 years, were portrayed by Bill Baker and Debbie Shappley. Bill was the perfect neaky gambler, and Debbie sparkled as his dumb-blond girlfriend. The now-stopping Nicely-Nicely Johnson was played by Dennis Eavenson, who added a great deal in his "Sit Down You're Rocking the Boat."

White Station's ninth annual musical was a tremendous success. We are all extremely proud of the hard-working cast and crew who have devoted so much time and effort to produce another top-notch Spartan performance

WSHS—27, CENTRAL—7

Coach Kim Koyd's Spartan football team opened the '68 season with an impressive victory over the Central Warriors. End Ken Roach scored the first touchdown by intercepting a pass on the Central 47 and galloping in for the score. The consistent offense then took over in the second period and scored in every other quarter on a 15 yard run by Mike Rowan, a pass from Steve Lawson to Rowan covering eight yards, and a four yard plunge by Lawson. The Warriors made several scoring threats but all but one were stopped by the mighty Spartan defense.

WSHS—12, JACKSON—7

The Spartans traveled to Jackson to face one of their toughest opponents of the season in one of the most exciting games in White Station history. The Green and Gray drew first blood when Dennis Starr ran the ball over from 10 yards out to complete a 54 yard drive. The Golden Bears came fighting back and scored late in the first quarter to lead the Spartans 7-6. The game then became a defensive battle as neither team was able to put together a successful drive until late in the fourth period when the Spartans gained control of the ball on their own seven yard line. White Station fought its way downfield with a 20 play drive that was kept alive twice on fourth down passes to Glynn Frix and John Thomas. With 1:41 left on the clock, Starr crashed over the goal from the three to insure the Spartan victory.

WSHS—13, CBHS—0

Defense was the name of the game as the mighty Spartans won their third straight game against CBHS. The Mean-teen held the Brothers to only 112 yards rushing while throwing their quarterback for a total of 22 yards lost. The others threatened to score twice but were stopped when Ken Roach recovered a fumble, and Glynn Frix poked off a pass. Defense does not win games, however, and the rugged Spartan defense was balanced with a consistent offense. White Station's first score resulted from a 72 yard march climaxed by an eight yard run up the middle by Charles Hill. The final score came on a quick pass from Steve Lawson to Frix, who scampered 48 yards for the tally. Mike Rowan was the offensive leader for the Spartans, rushing for 111 yards.

WSHS—33, MESSICK—6

White Station continued its winning way by crushing Messick in a game in which most of the scoring took place in the first half. The Spartans began their scoring barrage late in the first quarter when Charles Hill pushed the ball over the three. Moments later he scored again on a one yard plunge. Quarterback Steve Lawson then took to the air, hitting Ken Roach from six yards out. When the Spartans regained possession of the ball Lawson flipped the ball to George Witt, who sprinted 35 yards to the double stripes. The final Spartan score came with 13 seconds left in the half when Mike Rowan capped a drive with a 12 yard run.

WSHS—41, OVERTON—13

Going against one of the toughest teams in the league in arch rival Overton, the Green-and-Gray won its fifth consecutive game by combining an explosive offense with a stubborn defense. The Spartans rushed for 371 yards while holding the Rebels to only 36. Steve Lawson opened the scoring with an eight yard run, and Mike Rowan put the finishing touches on the victory by taking a lateral and racing 50 yards to paydirt. Sandwiched between these scores were a 37 yard touchdown gallop by George Witt, 10 and one yard plunges by Dennis Starr, and a pass interception by Gary Johnson, who returned the ball 15 yards for the score.

WSHS—7, HAMILTON—14

Although the Spartans started off strong by scoring the first time they gained control of the ball and moved the ball well throughout the remainder of the game, their winning streak was halted at five by a strong Hamilton team. The only Spartan score was set up by runs of 30 and 15 yards by fullback Charles Hill and Steve Lawson. Dennis Starr then carried the ball over from the one. With the score tied late in the fourth quarter, the Wildcats capitalized on Spartan penalties to take the lead and win the game.

WSHS—40, WASHINGTON—21

After spotting Booker T. Washington two touchdowns only six minutes into the game, White Station's defense tightened up and the offense began to roll. The Spartans marched 75, 71, and 45 yards in the second period to take a 20-14 halftime lead. The Mean Green came back in the third quarter to pick up where they had left off. After recovering a fumble on the Warrior five yard line, the Spartans were led downfield by Steve Lawson, who scored on a 14 yard keeper, his third touchdown of the game. White Station added two fourth period scores on runs by Mike Rowan and Dennis Starr. The Spartans pounded out 24 first downs and 397 yards rushing, led by Rowan with 120 yards and Starr with 102.

WSHS—0, NORTHSIDE—0

The Spartans could not seem to get the offense rolling in the eighth game of the season against Northside and had to depend on the defense for the tie. The Cougars held White Station to only 59 yards total offense and three first downs. The only highlight in the game for the Spartans was the punting of Ken Roach, who boomed nine kicks for a 41 yard average.

WSHS—33, KINGSBURY—0

To help celebrate homecoming ceremonies, the Green-and-Gray banged out 248 yards on the ground to trounce Kingsbury, 33-0. Most of this yardage was compiled on quarterback Steve Lawson's option plays including four of the touchdowns, one to George Witt, two to Mike Rowan and one on a keeper. The final Spartan tally came when Glenn Frix blocked a Falcon punt, and Jimmy Newton picked it up and scrambled to pay dirt.

WSHS—14, DYERSBURG—6

Having compiled a 7-1-1 record, the Spartans were invited to play in the Fifth Annual Milan Jaycee Bowl against the Dyersburg Trojans. The Spartans scored the first series of plays on a ten yard pass to Mike Rowan. In the second quarter White Station held Dyersburg deep in their territory and then marched 95 yards in 12 plays capped by a 10 yard pass from Steve Lawson to Glynn Frix, and the Spartans commanded a 14-0 lead at halftime. The Trojans scored once in the third period and threatened again late in the game, but a pass interception by George Witt spoiled Dyersburg's hopes of catching the Spartans. After the game Lawson was voted most valuable back of the game, and tackle Jimmy Newton was voted most valuable lineman for their outstanding play.

WSHS—19, WHITEHAVEN—33

White Station accepted its second bid to a bowl game against Whitehaven in the Whitehaven Booster Bowl played before 2,000 fans. Falling behind Whitehaven in the first half, 20-6, the Spartans were not able to catch their opponents until they tied them in the second half. Spartan scores came on runs of five and four yards by Steve Lawson and a 10 yard run by Mike Rowan. Although White Station ended the season with a defeat, the gridironers posted a fantastic 8-2-1 record for the year.

Senior High Basketball

After jumping off to a fantastic start by winning nine of the first 10 games, the White Station Senior High Basketball team, coached by Sam Lowry, fell into a slump losing six consecutive games. The cagers then found themselves again and won four of the last seven games of the season to post a 13-10 record. Six of the Spartan defeats were decided within the final minute of the game, and the margin in three of the games was one point. These games were to Germantown, SU, and Overton, three of the best teams in the district. Some of the Green and Gray's best efforts were against Lincoln, which they won in overtime, CBHS, and Messick. In the Messick game the Spartans held the Panthers scoreless for 10 minutes. Another outstanding effort for the Spartans was against highly rated Overton although the Spartans lost on the last second shot. White Station had the potential to beat any team they played this season with the experience of Willie Taylor, Ken Roach, Glynn Irix, Gary Stooksherry, and Jim Crawford underneath the basket, and the outside shooting of Alex Thompson, Mark Melton, Ken Markwell, Jeff Perkins, and Bob Ginn. Although the Spartans will be losing the services of some fine seniors, they can look forward to a bright future with the help of "B" teamers that will move up to the varsity squad.

The White Station "B" Team, coached by George Holt, had one of its best seasons in the '68-'69 campaign, compiling a 12-8 record. The Spartans showed great promise in the season opener with an impressive 43-14 victory over Oakhaven. The Green-and-Gray was defeated twice by only one team, Messick. Some of the most outstanding victories for the Spartans were against CBHS, Treadwell, and Overton. In the Overton contest, guard Bruce Kahn pumped in 27 big points to lead the victorious Spartans.

Senior High Baseball

Coach George Holt led the White Station Senior High Baseball Team to one of their finest seasons. The team registered seven wins and only one loss in an extremely close game with Messick. The Spartans had one of the strongest pitching staffs in the city with Bill Brown, Alex Thompson, and Gary Stooksberry, who pitched a no hitter against East striking out 16 of the 22 batters he faced. Only 11 runs were scored against the strong mean-green defense while the powerful offense behind the bats of Dee Cole, Dennis Starr, Ronald Oswalt, Bill Johnson, Chuck Clark, and Glynn Frix put 62 runs across the plate. The Spartans lose six seniors but can still expect to have another great season next year.

Senior High Track

Under the leadership of Coach George Tyree, the Senior High Track Team had one of its finest seasons. Inspired by the outstanding running, jumping, and vaulting of senior Dick Hopper, the cindermen finished second in their league and seventh in the city. The Spartans also displayed tremendous teamwork with one of the best relay teams in this area. Although White Station loses one of its most excellent trackmen ever in Dick Hopper, there is much evidence of another great season in 1969 with the return of many lettermen from the 1968 team.

STEVE RAMSEY

Senior High Golf

Coach Sam Lowry's Senior High Golf Team finished the 1968 season with a 4-2 record to place second in the city. With the consistently low shooting of each golfer, White Station was able to remain close in every match. Steve Ramsey was the only one of the four to graduate, and the Spartans can look forward to a successful future.

Three Spartans warm up before a race

Under the direction of Coach George Tyree and led by the record-breaking running of Tommy Strickland, the Senior High Cross-Country Team raced to seventh place in the city for the second straight year. Strickland set a new White Station cross-country record running the two miles in a fantastic time of 9:55. The Spartans placed second in every regular city meet and was a serious threat to any team. Hugh Hollowell, in his first year with the squad, placed high in the regional meet and the team as a whole placed ninth. The Green-and-Gray will be losing the running of only two seniors and can expect a great season in 1969.

Senior High Swimming

With outstanding individual and team efforts, Coach Larry Heathcott's Spartan Swimming Team placed second in the City Championships. Captain Bobby Hiller led the team winning top honors in the 100 yard Breast Stroke and the 100 yard Individual Medley. Ricky Hiller and Buzzy Boehme also won their events while all other Spartan finishes were for second place.

One of the greatest assets to the White Station student body is the group of Spartan Cheerleaders.

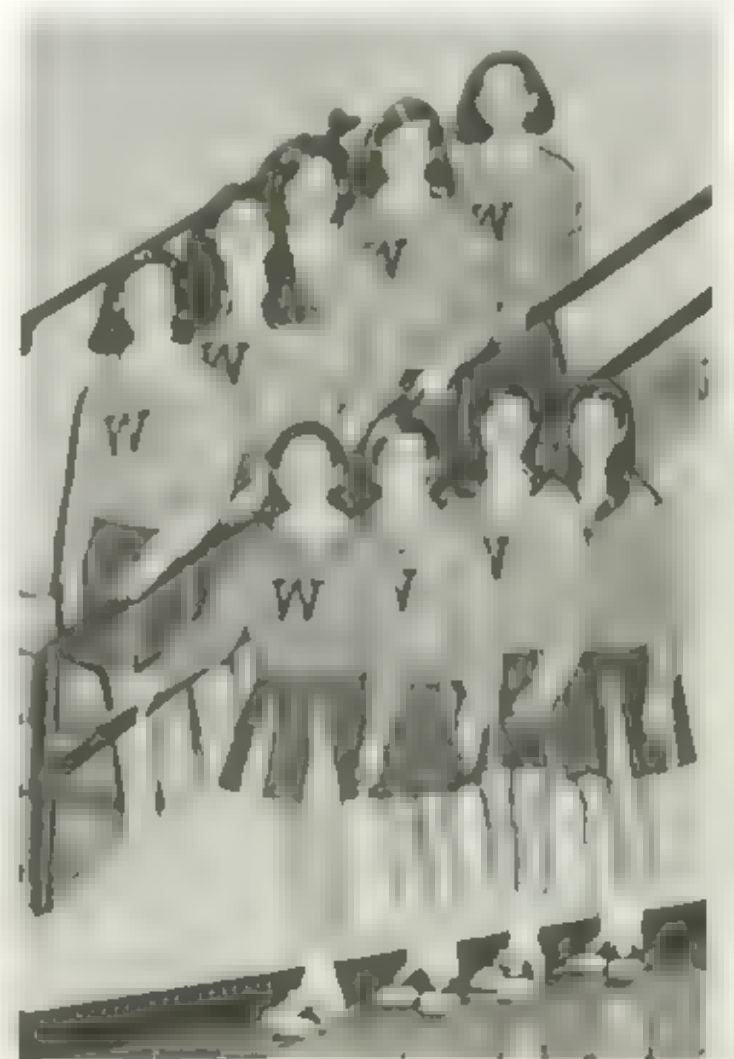

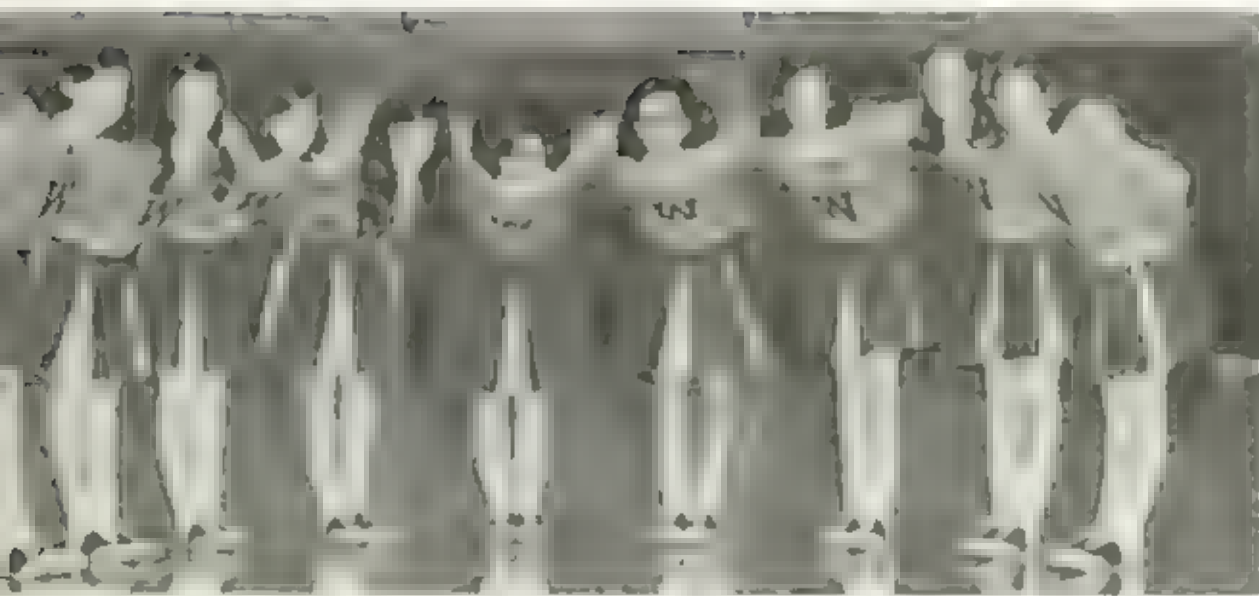

Everyone knows it is an honor and a privilege to be a cheerleader, but a few people know the amount of work, time, and patience that these girls invest while serving their school and cheering the White Station athletes on in both victory and defeat. As well as keeping spirit high at football games, this enthusiastic squad performs a number of other services, such as decorating for the football banquet and working alongside the Pep Club.

Junior High Football

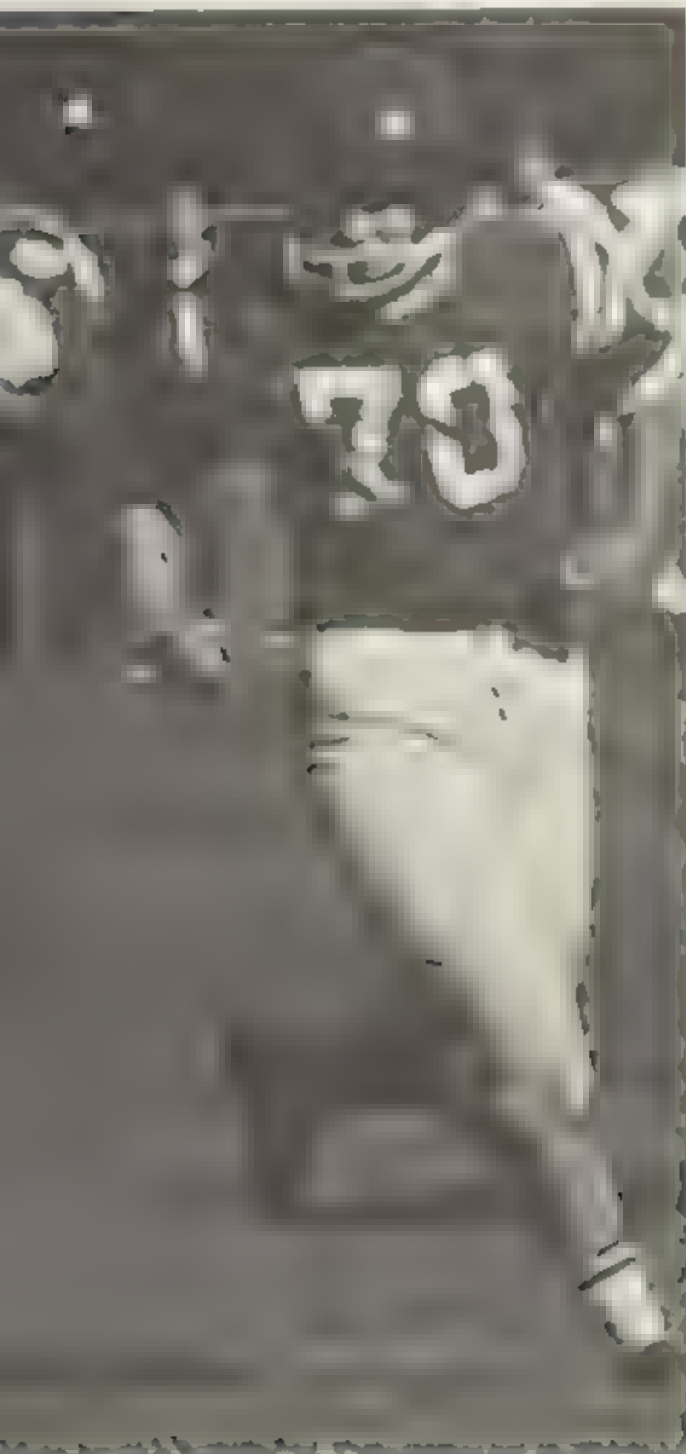

The 1968 Junior High Football Team, coached by Sam Lowry, was the best that White Station has ever produced. They even surpassed the 7-0 1967 season by posting a record of 8-0 and capturing the District III championship. The Spartans were sparked by the play of quarterback Jimmy Clark and halfback Bob Rowan. In a most crucial game against CBJHS, Rowan set a new White Station record by running for six touchdowns. His carries were for 70, 50, 40, 50, 6, and 10 yards. One of the toughest contests for the Spartans was against undefeated Corry. The Green-and-Gray combined a consistent offense and a good, solid defense to win the battle of the undefeateds. Although losing the services of Rowan and Clark, Coach Lowry and Spartan fans can look forward to a bright future for the junior high gridironers.

After another loss to Corry, the Junior High nine came roaring back for substantial victories over Treadwell and Frayser to end the season. Mr. Rush W. Siler
Principal

Principals

In the eighteen years during which Mr. Siler (top picture) has been principal, White Station has risen from its beginning as a small country school to the position of one of the finest public high schools in the South. This is due in no small part to the loyal efforts of Mr. Siler, whose hard work and dedication to the school have made him a legend in his own time.

Although only assuming the post of assistant principal one year ago, Mr. Callaway (bottom picture) has ably established his place at White Station. His duties range from aiding Mr. Siler in various endeavors to supervising administrative activities for the Junior High School.

English

Within the English Department of White Station High School, courses and activities are designed to develop the skills of reading and listening intelligently, thinking independently and rationally, and expressing thoughts clearly and logically. Emphasizing the language processes of democracy, the courses promote group thinking and discussion, critical use of mass modes of communication, and the responsibilities placed by freedom of speech and the press upon the individual. Efforts are made to relate English to varied experiences, curricular as well as personal.

As an area essential to the total school program, English enriches life and develops a deeper appreciation of literature. An apt medium for teaching moral and spiritual values, literature enhances the student's emotional experiences, his esthetic sense, and his understanding of human nature.

Juxtaposed to life, literature becomes its reflection.

*Through the years,
 made it clear
 that the time
 has come - Science is alive...
 now and the time*

The hum of jingling forks from the physics lab, students glued to microscopes in the biology labs, interesting odors from the chemistry lab - these are the sounds, sights and smells of the White Station Science Department. Adoption of the newest curricula with their analytical approach to scientific problems has made the laboratories the hub around which the science courses revolve, from the junior high level to the college level. Advanced Placement programs. It is the hope of the science teachers this investigative approach will prepare both the students who will never take another science course and those who will be our future scientists for life in the Space Age.

Languages

Communication toward understanding is one of the basic needs of our world society. Through the study of a foreign language, the student can gain skills which will help him to communicate with and understand persons of another society. To this end the White Station language department offers a varied language program. Students may become involved in the study of one or more of the four languages offered: Latin, Spanish, French, or Russian.

Mathematics

The mathematics curriculum is designed to instruct all students in the interpretation and understanding of traditional and contemporary concepts of mathematics. Every student is given the opportunity to engage in as many learning experiences in mathematics as he is willing and capable of successfully pursuing. The focus of mathematics at White Station is on the total curriculum rather than bits and pieces of it. Basic, average and enriched courses are offered in all areas. Since most of the White Station students are college bound, it is necessary that their preparation meet these demands.

Social Sciences

The social science department of White Station is designed to give the individual the opportunity to develop understandings and attitudes in creating sound political, social, and economic philosophy. The program seeks to develop in each student an understanding, appreciation, and pride in the heritage of America which will lead to his developing intelligent concepts of citizenship applicable to the home, the school, the community, the state, the nation, and the world. The curriculum is planned to help students improve their standard of living through the understanding of the interpersonal relationships of individuals as economic literacy. Emphasis is given in helping the individual formulate such values that he will become a useful and contributing student to his community.

Commercial Arts

The commercial arts department strives to prepare White Station students for the years ahead by providing them with practical skills and useful knowledge. In the business education department there are courses designed to meet the needs of students preparing for business employment; in the home economics department there are courses which prepare young ladies for the management of household duties. The courses offered range from typing to shorthand, from sewing to cooking. The practicality of the skills taught is emphasized, for they will be eminently useful to the student who has learned them well.

Physical Education

The physical education program is designed to promote physical fitness, contribute to the emotional and mental development, and to encourage high standards in sportsmanship.

Our objectives are:

1. To develop proper habits, attitudes and ideals toward healthful living.
2. To afford opportunities for exercising such desirable social traits as leadership, fellowship, and co-operation.
3. To recognize and to provide as far as possible, for individual differences, physically, psychologically, and socially.

—Miss Betty Westmoreland

Fine Arts

Nietzsche's philosophy that "Life without music would be a mistake" could easily be paraphrased to read that a curriculum without a strong fine arts department would indeed be a mistake. The objective of the art courses at White Station—be they graphic arts or musical arts—is to expose the students that partake to some of the aesthetic aspects of life. These often run the gamut from an exquisite Renaissance Botticelli painting to an abstract expressionistic Jackson Pollack—or from a haunting Mozart Requiem to a progressive jazz arrangement by Duke Ellington. Learning the fundamentals is emphasized and opportunities are given for them to actually participate—creating works with their hands, performing The Messiah, collaborating on a production of My Fair Lady. The faculty of the fine arts department prides itself upon molding its courses so that any student enrolled—whether he plans to major in fine arts at a higher institute, or merely sing a hymn in church—will emerge from our school with the appreciation, attitudes, and knowledge necessary.

In the past several years, environment has been increasingly stressed as an important factor in a child's education. The White Station Parent Teacher Association provides the necessary link between home and school environments. Headed by its President, Mrs. C. Ray Smith, the PTA made its forty-eighth year a great success. Activities included sponsoring of parent teacher discussion groups, monthly bulletins distributed at school, supporting community projects and student scholarships, and a law-and-order program featuring outstanding Memphis law officials. The money to support these projects was supplied both by dues and the traditional November Spaghetti Supper, followed by an Open House to accomplish the PTA's basic purpose to encourage parent teacher understanding.

Booster Club

OFFICERS Left to right Mr L A Mabry, Vice-President, Mrs Vivian Farrar, Secretary; Mr Jack Mobley, President NOT PICTURED: Mr. John Thomas, Treasurer.

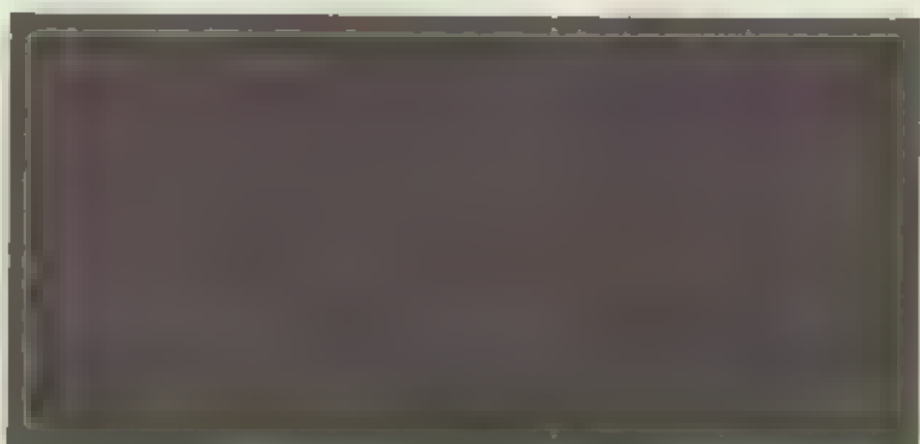

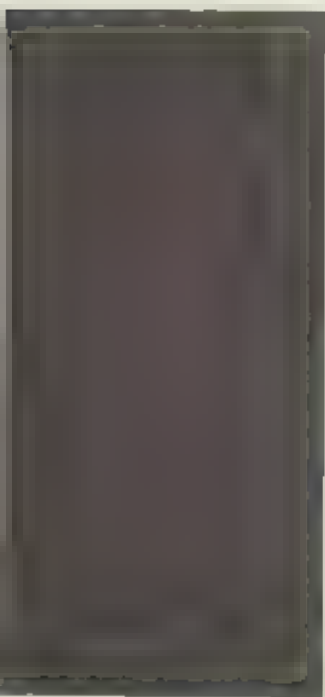

The White Station Booster Club, headed by President Jack Mobley, had another quite successful year. With money raised from family memberships and advertising in the basketball program, the club was able to sponsor several activities. These included team and parent buses for the football season, free programs for the basketball games played in 1969, and many smaller but equally important activities. In addition to its athletic endeavors, the Booster Club sponsors the Rush W Siler Scholarship which is awarded to an outstanding Spartan student. This active organization is indeed a valuable credit to White Station.

Memo From

JOHN F. GAMBLE
and
VERNON F. GAMBLE, JR.

How you can be more likely to succeed!

Now that you're completing your High School education, you can take another step towards insuring your future success—getting your program of life insurance arranged BEFORE you graduate and go to the college of your choice.

New York Life has a wide variety of attractive plans available to High School students. And because you are young and still in school, you pay a low premium rate. These plans can protect your family and build a ready fund for use when you want to buy a home or start a business.

Sooner or later you're going to want life insurance. Why not give yourself the money-saving advantage of getting it now, when the cost to you is favorable.

it's been a memorable year.
 for better
 or worse,
 the white station student has followed his own
 brand of uniqueness,
 has lived the
 "do your own thing"
 philosophy to
 the nth degree.

nineteen hundred sixty-nine
at white station
has been
neither completely sane
nor completely insane.
but it certainly
has been different

"I must be
what I must be
and face tomorrow."
for the white station student,
simon and garfunkel's line
just about sums it up.

white station/ nineteen hundred sixty-nine
has gone;
our attempts to retell it
are over the rest is only memories

Dear Andy,

When I think of all the afternoons we've sat outside the band room listening to the musical, I... uh... well I think of all the afternoons we've sat outside the band room
listening to the musical.

(well it's different you have to admit that)

Luck to ya Not that you need it.

Wishes,

Julie

The nineteen hundred sixty-nine SHIELD staff

wishes to thank:

Mr Rod Phillips, our professional photographer, who has endured many inconveniences for us,

Debbie Fineberg, our circulation manager, who is responsible for the sale and handling of the yearbooks, and especially Jim Slater and Dan Barnett, our photographers and all-round lifesavers without whom there would be no nineteen hundred sixty nine SHIELD.

Take it easy, greasy, wet.

John Fullmore

To a real true friend who has hours suffered many boring hours with me. It's been great knowing you this year. Jim Baker

Andrew,
Remember all the old band days? How about Looney Cooney & Rickland. You're the one that gave him the ulcer with your lousy clarinet. Man, & those wild 6 flags trips. And, finally, this year driving Miss Galsome to an early grave. Keep up the good work.
